Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 5, 2021, the board of directors (the “Board”) of Pieris Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) appointed Mr. Ahmed Mousa, the Company’s Senior Vice President, Corporate Operations and General Counsel, as Senior Vice President, Chief Business Officer and General Counsel of the Company, effective as of October 6, 2021. In this role, Mr. Mousa will continue to be responsible for oversight of the Company’s legal and intellectual property matters, quality assurance, and the Company’s Boston facility and will additionally oversee the areas of business development and portfolio management. In addition, Mr. Mousa will continue to serve as Corporate Secretary of the Company. Accordingly, the Board has designated Mr. Mousa as an executive officer of the Company and an “officer” for purposes of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

Mr. Mousa, age 37, joined the Company in January 2016 and has most recently served in the role of Senior Vice President, Corporate Operations and General Counsel. Prior to his tenure with the Company, from September 2013 to December 2015, Mr. Mousa was an attorney at Covington & Burling LLP. Mr. Mousa received his A.B. in Molecular and Cell Biology and Government from Cornell University, M.S. in Biotechnology from Johns Hopkins University, and J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center.

In addition, the Board appointed Mr. Thomas Bures, the Company’s Vice President, Finance and Treasurer, as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, effective as of October 6, 2021. Mr. Bures will continue to be designated as an executive officer of the Company, an “officer” for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act, and as the Company’s principal financial officer and principal accounting officer.

Mr. Bures, age 47, joined the Company in December 2017 and has served in the role of Vice President, Finance, since then. Prior to his tenure with the Company, from June 2015 to December 2017, Mr. Bures served as Vice President and Corporate Controller of Genocoea Biosciences. Prior to that, he served as Vice President and Assistant Controller of Parexel International. Mr. Bures received his B.A. in Accounting and Finance from the College of the Holy Cross.

In connection with Mr. Mousa’s appointment, Mr. Mousa and the Company will enter into an indemnification agreement in the form the Company has entered into with certain of its other executive officers, which form is filed as Exhibit 10.10 to the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K (File No. 333-190728) filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 18, 2014. Under this agreement, the Company will agree, among other things, to indemnify Mr. Mousa for certain expenses, including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by him in any action or proceeding arising out of his service as one of the Company’s executive officers. The Company had previously entered into an indemnification agreement with Mr. Bures, which will remain in place.

In addition, the Company will enter into employment agreements with each of Mr. Mousa and Mr. Bures. The agreements with Mr. Mousa and Mr. Bures provide for a continuous term and may be terminated by either party provided that the terminating party provides 60 days’ written notice to the other party, or by the Company without notice for good cause. Mr. Mousa is eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to 40% of his annual base salary, and Mr. Bures is eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to 40% of his annual base salary, each based upon achievement of corporate performance objectives as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board in its sole discretion. Mr. Mousa’s base salary under the agreement is $385,000, and Mr. Bures’ base salary under the agreement is $370,000.

Each employment agreement provides that if the employee’s employment is terminated (i) by us without cause or (ii) by him for good reason, then we must pay the employee (a) a lump-sum payment equal to nine months of his base salary, and (b) an amount equal to his health insurance premium, paid directly or as a reimbursement to the employee, for up to a maximum of nine months. The severance payment would be expressly conditioned on the employee executing and delivering to us a release of claims.

Each employment agreement also provides that if within 12 months following a change of control, the employee’s employment is terminated (i) by us without cause or (ii) by him for good reason, and the employee executes and delivers to us a release of claims, then he will receive (a) a lump-sum payment equal to 12 months of his base salary at the time of his termination, (b) his target bonus amount for the year in which the termination occurs, (c) an amount equal to 12 months of his health insurance premium, paid directly or as a reimbursement to the employee, and (d) all outstanding unvested equity awards will immediately vest in full and become exercisable following termination and any forfeiture restrictions will immediately lapse.

The employment agreements also contain (i) customary confidentiality obligations which are not limited by the term of the agreement, (ii) certain non-compete provisions extending during the term of the agreement and one year thereafter, and (iii) certain non-solicitation provisions during the term of the agreement and for one year thereafter. Each of Mr. Mousa and Mr. Bures also agreed to assign certain intellectual property rights to us.

The foregoing descriptions of the employment agreements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copies of the agreements to be filed with the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2021.

PRESS RELEASEPIERIS PHARMACEUTICALS ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENTS OF CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AND CHIEF BUSINESS OFFICER

BOSTON, MA, October 6, 2021—Pieris Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NASDAQ: PIRS), a clinical-stage biotechnology company advancing novel biotherapeutics through its proprietary Anticalin® technology platform for respiratory diseases, cancer, and other indications, today announced the promotions of Thomas Bures to Chief Financial Officer and Ahmed Mousa to Chief Business Officer.

“Since joining Pieris four years ago, Tom has demonstrated excellent business and leadership acumen, having played a critical role across the entire spectrum of the corporate finance function during this time,” said Stephen S. Yoder, President and Chief Executive Officer of Pieris. “I speak on behalf of my management colleagues and the Board of Directors in congratulating Tom on this well-earned appointment, as we look forward to several corporate milestones in the ensuing quarters and attendant investment decisions, where Tom’s leadership will be an important resource to have at hand.”

“I am elated to pursue this new chapter of my career at Pieris,” said Mr. Bures. “Having joined at a formative time in our pursuit of our immuno-oncology bispecifics and inhaled biologics franchises, I have since witnessed the positive impact of our continued pipeline progression, bringing us closer to our goal of providing transformative therapies to patients. I look forward to continued execution on our financial goals and playing my part to ensure the continued pursuit of thoughtful R&D endeavors.”

Mr. Bures joined Pieris in 2017 as Vice President of Finance and currently oversees all financial matters at the Company, including treasury, tax, financial planning, procurement and investor relations. He has more than 20 years of finance experience, with over a decade working in life sciences organizations. Prior to joining Pieris, Mr. Bures served as Vice President, Corporate Controller at Genocoe Biosciences. He began his career in Ernst & Young’s audit practice. Mr. Bures received his B.S. in Accountancy from the College of the Holy Cross.

Mr. Mousa joined Pieris in 2016 and most recently served as Senior Vice President, Corporate Operations and General Counsel. In addition to his role in business development and portfolio strategy, Mr. Mousa will continue to serve as General Counsel and Boston site head, among other responsibilities. Prior to joining Pieris, Mr. Mousa was an attorney with the law firm Covington & Burling LLP. Mr. Mousa obtained undergraduate degrees in Molecular Biology and Government from Cornell University, a master’s degree in Biotechnology from Johns Hopkins, and a J.D. from Georgetown Law with Honors.

“In his several years serving as a strategic contributor at Pieris, Ahmed has played an integral role in devising and closing Pieris’ partnerships with AstraZeneca, Genentech, Servier, Seagen, and Boston Pharmaceuticals,” continued Mr. Yoder. “With his experience and instinct, the assumption of business development responsibility is a natural extension of Ahmed’s important remit at Pieris.”

“It has been exciting to see the evolution of Pieris’ programs from concept to the clinic,” said Mr. Mousa. “This forward momentum has been strengthened through high-value partnerships, including the progression of our co-developed 4-1BB/PD-L1 bispecific with Servier, where Pieris retain U.S. rights, and the continued phase 2 development of our inhaled IL4-R α program with AstraZeneca, where Pieris retains co-development and co-commercialization options. I’m looking forward to seeing these programs advance and continuing to explore additional, high-impact partnerships that could enable Pieris to realize its ambition of commercializing transformative therapies.”

About Pieris Pharmaceuticals:

Pieris is a clinical-stage biotechnology company that combines leading protein engineering capabilities and deep understanding into molecular drivers of disease to develop medicines that drive local biology to produce superior clinical outcomes for patients. Forward Looking Statements:

This press release contains forward-looking statements as that term is defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Statements in this press release that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, among other things, the expected timing and potential outcomes of the reporting by the Company of key clinical data from its programs, references to novel technologies and methods and our business and product development plans, including the Company's cash resources, the advancement of our proprietary and co-development programs into and through the clinic and the expected timing for reporting data, making IND filings or achieving other milestones related to our programs, including PRS-060/AZD1402, cinrebafusp alfa, PRS-344, and PRS-352 and the expected timing of the initiation of the next stage of cinrebafusp alfa's development in gastric cancer. Actual results could differ from those projected in any forward-looking statements due to numerous factors. Such factors include, among others, our ability to raise the additional funding we will need to continue to pursue our business and product development plans; the inherent uncertainties associated with developing new products or technologies and operating as a development stage company; our ability to develop, complete clinical trials for, obtain approvals for and commercialize any of our product candidates, including our ability to recruit and enroll patients in our studies; our ability to address the requests of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration; competition in the industry in which we operate; delays or disruptions due to COVID-19; and market conditions. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this press release, and we assume no obligation to update the forward-looking statements, or to update the reasons why actual results could differ from those projected in the forward-looking statements, except as required by law. Investors should consult all of the information set forth herein and should also refer to the risk factor disclosure set forth in the reports and other documents we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission available at www.sec.gov, including without limitation the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 and the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q.
